

I would like to share an update with you on media appearances, in-district events, and committee hearings that I have had in the last few weeks of the 118th Congress. It is an honor to continue fighting for you!

I offered a House Resolution to designate July "American Pride Month"

The month of June is designated as Pride Month in the United States, yet we only have a single day to honor the servicemembers who have perished, our veterans, and our country's independence. Our country's great achievements should be celebrated every day, which is why I am proud of my office's efforts to designate July as American Pride Month.

The FBI has never been more unpopular with the American people, not because of the rank and file agents, but because of their leadership. Persecuting Joe Biden's political opponents was never the intention of this agency, but here we are.

It was an honor to be in Bunker Hill Village's July 4th Parade!

My family and I were honored to be the special guest at this year's Independence Day Parade in Bunker Hill Village. The love for our country is strong. Together we will be the torchbearers of hope and freedom, guiding future generations of Americans. God Bless Houston, God Bless Texas and God Bless the United States of America!

I joined Fox News to address the radical left's attack on our Second Amendment rights

Conservatives are not responsible for homicidal maniacs killing Americans. And if the Philadelphia shooter was wearing a MAGA hat, what would the headlines and press coverage look like? Facts matter, no matter how inconvenient they may be.
